Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

	$245	filing fee
	$75	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

---

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc\_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

1. Limited Scope. The Current Engagement does not include the representation of you in connection with any matters other than the Current Engagement, nor does it include the representation of any other person or business.

2. Pre-Petition Professional fee and Expenses. The professional fee for filing your individual chapter 7 case is $1,500. In addition to the professional fee, you will be responsible for advancing the expenses associated with filing the Case, which relate to the court's filing fee of $335 and the $60 cost of the two mandatory credit counseling courses and additional accessing your current credit reports. The professional fees and expense costs must be delivered to FactorLaw before the case is filed. The total payment to FactorLaw is $1,895.

The professional fee is considered a flat fee and will be deemed earned upon receipt. The pre-petition professional fee of $1,500 covers Primary Services (defined below). If you pay the $1,500, and decide not to proceed with a bankruptcy filing and to terminate our services, the Firm will apply the time incurred to the amount of the fee and will refund any excess amount.

Primary Services include: (a) preparing the initial bankruptcy petition and filing it with the bankruptcy court in order to commence the Case, (b) accompanying you to the meeting of creditors, (c) counseling with respect to pre-filing creditor counseling and post-filing educational requirements, (d) counseling with respect to the exemption of particular items or types of property and reaffirmation agreements and appearing in Court, if needed, with respect to reaffirmation agreements, and (e) general case administration and monitoring, including undertaking any incidental contacts or communications with the trustee and creditors.

If you decide to hire FactorLaw, any services rendered in addition to the above-described Primary Services ("Supplemental Services"), will be billed on a regular basis and require a separate advance payment, depending upon the extent of the Supplemental Services. The fees for Supplemental Services are based upon the number of hours expended multiplied by the hourly rate of the attorney working on the matter. At present, the customary rate for William Factor is $375 per hour and for Sara Lorber is $325 per hour. FactorLaw charges $275 for the services of its other attorneys and it charges $100 per hour for the services of legal assistants. Rates are reviewed periodically and are subject to change.

Generally, Supplemental Services relate to representation in connection with (a) a separate "Adversary Proceeding" in the bankruptcy court (see below discussion regarding Adversary Proceedings), (b) a separate matter involving the treatment of property, (c) an examination of you pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004, or (d) a challenge to your eligibility to file for chapter 7 or to remain in a chapter 7 proceeding.

Adversary Proceedings are stand-alone suits filed in the bankruptcy court that sometimes include: (a) defending against a complaint filed by the trustee or any other party in interest to deny a bankruptcy discharge, (b) defending against a complaint filed by a creditor to except its debt from discharge, (c) defending against a complaint filed by the trustee to avoid or to recover any transfer of property made before the filing of a chapter 7 petition, (d) defending against any assertion that property listed as exempt is not entitled to that status, (e) prosecuting a complaint for a determination that any indebtedness is dischargeable, and (f) appealing any order or judgment entered in the Case.

For Supplemental Services, FactorLaw also charges for actual out of pocket expenses advanced on your behalf. FactorLaw generally limits out of pocket expenses to costs that would not have been incurred but for FactorLaw's work on your behalf. FactorLaw does not charge for routine facsimile, telephone, and computerized legal research within the scope of FactorLaw's subscription to LEXIS.

It is not possible to determine with any degree of precision the total fees and other charges that you are likely to incur in connection with any Supplemental Services. Thus, any estimate of total fees always carries the understanding that, unless we agree otherwise in writing, it does not represent a maximum, minimum, or fixed-fee quotation. The ultimate cost frequently is more or less than the amount estimated and often is a function of matters outside of our control, particularly when litigation is involved.

3. Post-petition Professional Fee. After your case is filed, FactorLaw may request that you sign a second professional fee agreement promising to pay for any Supplemental Services provided after the date your case was filed with the court. You are under no obligation to sign such an agreement and may refuse to sign such an agreement. However, as authorized by Local Bankruptcy Rule 2091-1.B, FactorLaw may withdraw from representing you if you refuse to sign such an agreement or in the event you do not pay the fees earned thereunder.

4. Billing and Payment. FactorLaw will endeavor to bill you on a regular basis — normally, each month — for both fees and expenses incurred in connection with any Supplemental Services that are performed.

You acknowledge that the financial arrangements set forth in this letter have been agreed upon to induce us to act as your attorney. By accepting this arrangement, you will be deemed to have consented in advance to allowing us to withdraw as your attorneys in the event of nonpayment, and expressly waive the attorney/client privilege concerning relevant portions of this letter so as to permit us to withdraw as your attorneys.

5. Professional Judgment and Written Reliance. At all times, FactorLaw and its attorneys will endeavor to represent you zealously and act on your behalf to the best of our ability. Whenever FactorLaw provides you with an expression regarding the potential outcome of a matter, we will use our best professional judgment. However, we cannot guarantee results or the outcome of any matter or issue. Any expression of our professional judgment regarding the Current Engagement or the potential outcome is, of course, limited by our knowledge of the facts and based on the law at the time of expression. It is also subject to any unknown or uncertain factors or conditions beyond our control. Any expressions of judgment or views are limited solely to you and may not be shared with any other entity, nor may any other entity rely upon such expressions.

Because of the complex nature of legal matters, we will endeavor to counsel you in writing on material legal matters affecting you. Please note that unless legal advice provided by FactorLaw is given in writing, it may be misinterpreted and thus you agree not to rely upon any advice from FactorLaw except to the extent in writing. You also agree to request advice in writing on important matters with regard to which you may rely upon FactorLaw's advice.

6. Illinois Law. This agreement is to be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois. FactorLaw and you agree that any court action between the parties to enforce the terms of this agreement or resolve any dispute related to this agreement shall be initiated solely in the state or federal courts with jurisdiction for or over Cook County, Illinois. In the event FactorLaw files suit to enforce the terms of this Agreement or to recover payment, it shall be entitled to recover all of the fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

7. Records Retention. In the course of representing you, it is likely that numerous records and documents (originals and copies) will come into our possession and numerous additional documents will be generated by us. Naturally, you may examine any written materials in our files at any time we agree prior to the termination of our representation, but you acknowledge that all of our work product is owned by us.

8. Termination of Representation. You may terminate our representation at any time, with or without cause, by notifying us and subject to court approval when required for matters in litigation. We will return your papers and other property promptly upon receipt of a request for those materials unless they are appropriately subject to a lien under applicable law. We will retain our own files pertaining to the engagement, including our drafts, notes, internal memos, and work product as permitted by applicable law. Your termination of our services will not affect your responsibility for payment for legal services rendered and other charges incurred before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter.

9. Conclusion of Representation. When we complete the services for which you have retained us, our attorney-client relationship for that matter will be terminated. If you later retain us to perform further or additional services, our attorney-client relationship will be revived subject to these terms of engagement unless we change the terms in writing at that time.

10. Commencement of Representation. If the terms set forth herein are acceptable to you, please acknowledge your understanding and agreement by signing, dating, and returning a copy of this letter to us. Our representation will commence upon our receipt of the executed copy of this agreement and the professional fee.

THE LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM J. FACTOR, LTD.
